El Centro Resource Center at Chabot College
Invites Public to Attend Free Raza College Day on November 4
Workshops, Resources for Undocumented Students, Financial Aid Information, and Much More!

(Hayward, CA) - The El Centro Latino/Chicano Resource Center at Chabot College in Hayward plays host to Raza College Day on Saturday, November 4, 2017 from 8:30 a.m. to 12 p.m. Students, parents, and the general public are invited to this free and informative event to be held in the Little Theater, Building 1200, on the Chabot College campus at 25555 Hesperian Boulevard.

"In just two short months since its grand opening, the El Centro Center is fulfilling its mission of providing relevant and vital information and services to the community at large as well as current and prospective students and their families," said Chabot College President Dr. Susan Sperling.

Raza College Day will include a variety of free workshops presented in both Spanish and English, including College Statement Writing, Resources for Undocumented Students, Discovering the World of Math and Science, Scholarships, Financial Aid, and a special workshop for parents. A free resource will also take place.

Registration gets underway at 8:30 a.m. and both breakfast and lunch will be provided to participants. Those interested should RSVP online at <https://tinyurl.com/RazaCollegeDay17>. For more information, or accommodation needs, please call (510) 723-6714 or email jphernancez@chabotcollege.edu.

Raza College Day is funded by the Title V HSI Grant, Chabot College Student Services, the Chicano Latino Education Association (CLEA), and the Creating Academic Readiness Network for Aspiring Latinos (CARNAL).

The El Centro Resource Center centralizes the experiences and cultural background of Latinos/Chicanos, and provides services to all students, staff, and community members. Services include tutoring, counseling, financial aid assistance, one-on-one instructors in a variety of fields, a safe space study lounge with access to computers and printers, and much more. The center is open Mondays and Wednesdays from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., and Tuesdays and Thursdays from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m.
